

CORRESPONDENCE.

Peck Notes.

Delayed Correspondence

Everything is looking splendid.

The Fourth is drawing near.

A picnic was given by school Section No 4 in Mrs Pike's grove. A large crowd was in attendance, everything went off splendid and H. O. Babcock delivered a short speech. Mr. House took great pains in training his scholars to sing and speak their pieces.

Biron M. Dutches has purchased the property formerly owned by Charles Tenwick.

Miss Hattie Barrett, is visiting friends in town this week.

G. S. Kimball and H. O. Babcock delivered a temperance lecture at the Gray school house. Go in boys and crush King Alcohol.

Minden Murmurs.

Minden will celebrate the Fourth.

Can give you the program next day after the Fourth, better than now.

Mr F. O. Hetfield was buried last Friday by the Masonic Fraternity.

Rev J. Cunolia of White Rock officiated assisted by Rev J. Bettes.

Our Streets are being graded by Commissioner Yates. Such work was very much needed in our town.

Five reapers and other agricultural implements were sold in one day, and were shipped out of town at one time.

Minden is a live town.

Clint Haviland is building a barn on his farm, two Miles west of Minden.

Rev J. Bettes preached his fourth

Temperance sermon last Sabbath evening, at the M. E. church from Proverbs 16, 25.

The Sabbath School excursion and picnic has been postponed until after the Fourth.

Capac Chips.

Capac is to have races, shooting, etc.

to amuse the people on the fourth.

The church societies are trying to get up a Union Sabbath school picnic for the children to come off on, or there about, the 4th of July.

Mrs J. A. Smith is the happy possessor of one of those beautiful Oil stoves, purchased of S. L. Boyce & Co., Pt.

Huron which, notwithstanding the many discouraging remarks to the contrary, does its duty in the most charming manner, and without the least notion towards blowing the cook sky high as yet.

Quite a large number of our country cousins at the Allen House for lunch

Sunday afternoon, and all seemed in excellent spirits when they left, especially the two fair maidens with the carriage and span, that's right girls come again you're always welcome.

J. E. Soultz of Fort Gratiot Sun met with quite an accident one day of last week, while jumping off a moving train in order to run up town and not calculating the speed at which they were going struck terra firma rather forcibly so much so, in fact as to scarcely be recognized in his former role of "band-box Joey." However we are happy to say that his injuries will probably not prove fatal.

Mrs Cady and little daughter of Port Huron were the guests of Mr and Mrs Brink over Sunday.

We now have green peas, cabbage etc, every Friday at Sam Smiths.

Strawberries only 20c per quart last Saturday.

Rev H. D. Miller assisted by Revs

Clark, of Brockway, and Emerick has been holding quarterly meeting in Elewoods Grove at Riley Centre during the past week.

A. McNaught is now doing duty in S.

S. Brocker's store in place of Fred Boole resigned.

G. Lester has purchased the planing mill of H. C. Cohoe much to the relief of some parties who doubted the ability of Mr Cohoe to sell to a town man.

A. Flinn reporter for the Port Huron

Times was in town Monday morning.

The M. P. Society Club is to be reorganized.

The Misses J & J Kissane are doing some very nice work in their dressmaking department and at very reasonable rates. SWEET BRIAR

A large stock of Dry Goods just received at G. W. Waring & Co's.

—Jas Wallace turned out his first harness last week. Rev. C. W. Harsh-man was the purchaser. It is a fine harness got up in a neat and tasty manner.

—Mr & Mrs Hubbard, of St Ignace,

(the latter formerly known in this place as Miss Lucy Darcy) are enjoying a portion of the sweets of honeymoon here with her friends.

NOTICE !

quested to call immediately and settle their accounts as they will be placed in the hands of a collector at the end of thirty days. W. N. McKenna.

A Word To The Farmers.

Gentlemen: Some of you have been informed that you should not buy the Rawson machine because you could not get repairs for the same. It is not so, repairs will be kept in town year after year. Gentleman, do not be fooled by machines that will not stand the test. There are machines sold in this town that were returned last year on account of not doing good work, and are sold for first-class machines now.

Try them for yourself and be satisfied in your own mind.

Yours, F. S. Pool, Ag't.
